Breckinridge in Indiana. We referred, a day or two since, to the fact that the BRECKINRIDGE and LANE men in Indianaintend making a vigorous canvass for the presentatives of their principles. The State envention, which we then mentioned as to be held about August 1st, has been called for July 31st, at Indianapolis.

The National Democrats of Marion coun will meet at Indianapolis on the 14th inst., to organize for the campaign. The call for this ecting is signed by one hundred men; and the list is not less formidable for the number than for the respectability and influence of those whose names are upon it.

The Vevay (Ia.) News is giving a warm sur port to BRECKINRIDGE and LANE. The Boone County (Ia.) Pioneer, the regular emocratic organ for Boone county, has hoisted the BRECKINRIDGE flag, with the following de claration:

The gallant and chivairous young Kentuckian, and the brave and honest old soldier of the Mexican war, are the men the people want. Standing upon a broad national platform, recognizing the equality of all the States in the Union, and the equal rights of all the citizens of our glorious Confederacy, they will dash back the waves of Abolitionism and sectionalism whatever shape they may assume. The only National candidates, they will easily triumph over the negro equality nominee of Chicago, and the demogogue put forth by the sectional "Rump" conclave at Baltimore.

The Bainbridge Argus and Porter Democrat we are also informed, are co-operating for the Union and the Constitution with the friends o BRECKINRIDGE and LANE.

Madisonville Register for Breckinridge. ter the adjournment of the Convention, an in ention to support BRECKINGIDGE and LANE .-This week it nails its colors to the mast, say

In accordance with our own inclinations, and with what we conceive to be the sentiment of a large majority of the Democratic party of Kentucky, we place at the head of our columns the names of Breckinridge and Lane as candidates for President and Vice President of the United States. We have endeavored at all times to hold ourselves in an attitude to support the nominees of the National Convention; and we had looked to the assembling of that body as the period which should put an end to the strifes and bickerings which have been festering in the party for years past; but these hopes have been dissipated. We regard the party as being in a state of anarchy and revolution, and it is the veriest tom-foolery to tell us that either Breckinridge or Douglas is the regular nominee of the party. There was no nomination made at Baltimore that is binding upon a single member of the party, and while we have raised the names of Breckinridge and Lane, and expect to do battle under the state of the party and while we have raised the names of Breckinridge and Lane, and expect to do battle under In accordance with our own inclinations, an and white we have raised the names of Breckin-ridge and Lane, and expect to do battle under that flag, yet we do not urge their claims on the score that they are the regular nominees of the party. According to our judgment, they are more faithful exponents of the time-honored principles of Democracy than the other ticket, and therefore we shall give them our vote sion that it is the bona fide organization of the Democratic party, and thus draw to it new adents, is a cheat, and will of necessity fail in its objects. The grounds upon which it claims its authority to dictate to those in the party who differ with its doctrines and repudiate its candidates are, first, that Douglas is the regular nombuke, the propositions which were advanced by the very men who are now the right hand ince of the party; and, secondly, that his supporters are in the majority in the State, and are therefore entitled to the control of the party. We propose to examine briefly both these points, and to refute their tenability. The assertion that Douglas is the regular nominee involves at the start the assertion that he received two-thirds of the electoral votes as represented in the Convention. Had he been the recipient of the votes of two-thirds of the nominating Convention, fairly representing the States, no one claiming to be a Democrat could, after going into the Convention, have denied his claim as the nominee. But what are the facts? The Convention at Baltimore met, and, as a first act of injustice, the delegations from Mississippi and Texas, from which States there were no contestants, were excluded from their seats, and why? Simply because they were known to be unfavorable to Douglas. A Committee on Credentials was appointed to sit apon the claims of delegates from all the Southrn Seceding States and upon the rights of several indiviual delegates from Northern States. As regards the latter, the memorable case of HALLETT, of Massachusetts, strikingly exempli fies the gross outrages they were willing to perpetrate to carry their point. He was a regular delegate to Charleston, but owing to sickness and executed to his alternate, CHAFFEE, an ordinary power of attorney to act in his stead. rtainly no one will claim that such an instrument deprived him of his rights or transferred them beyond his power of reclaiming them at any time. Any one who has the slightest acuaintance with law, would decide in equity and law that he could, at any time prior to the final adjournment of the Convention, have withdrawn his power of attorney and acted as principal instead of his agent. But when the Convention sembled at Baltimore, and it was found neces sary to swell the Douglas vote, the claims of HALLETT were basely ignored, and CHAFFEE, who held his brief authority by temporary appoint ment of his principal, was declared entitled to the seat and vote rightfully belonging to HAL-He was a Douglas man, Hallett was not. In like manner was O'FALLON, of Missouri, declared entitled to a seat, merely because he was for DougLas and the contestant was not. the action was still more infamous. For four days the country was held in suspense by the elay of the Committee on Credentials. At one time it was asserted that the report would be favorable to Douglas, at another that the delegates opposed to him would be admitted, until was announced that the New York delgation had voted for the Douglas delegates, and that the report was favorable to their admission. Never was such a blow struck at the rights of a people exercising their highest pow-

The most recent demonstration of a public aracter was the assembling of thirty-one coun ers in a primary assembly. Take, for instance ties in Convention on the 5th instant, to nominate a candidate for Judge of the Court of Ap the case of Arkansas. This State held its regu peals. Of six hundred delegates, not one dis-senting voice was raised to the enthusiastic ratilar Democratic Convention for the purpose ominating candidates for State offices and Seation of BRECKINRIDGE and LANE. Thus it is delegates to the Charleston Convention, at the same time laying down its platform seen that every test which can be made as a cri erion of popular sentiment in Kentucky, shows principles, repudiating Squatter Sovereignty nclusively that the party is, in its organization l voting down Douglasism almost unanimou in its leaders, and in its masses, for BRECKIN-The Convention met at Charleston, and the prity of the Arkansas delegation felt constrained to retire upon the adoption of a platorm at variance with the principles enunciated short time before the Baltimore Convention; and many of the people of Arkansas received the first intelligence of such a convention in the proceed-when the Committee on Credentials sat upon this case, with all these facts before them in au-had voted for the adjournment to Baltimore.

Between the adjournment at Charleston and the final action of the Committee on Credentials at ers in patronage were on the qui vive for some man who would give them better terms than DOUGLAS. They knew they could get all they wanted from him; but yet, knowing that his nomination under the circumstances, the foul frauds which would have to be perpetrated to secure it with even the shadow of legality, would break up the organization of the party as previ-

the friends of each with their base propositions, with their offers to desert DougLAS and to sup port them upon a guarantee that the patronage of their State should be given into their hands in the event of an election, they were spurned with honest indignation. Repelled with ignominy, they yet held off from giving the vote in the Committee on Credentials, still hoping that the York dailies especially, have been quite severe in their denunciation of Commodore Vanderbild for refusing to carry the California mails any Granada, where they cross over to Panama by railroad to the Pacific Steam-line. Mr. Vanderrailroad which runs through the swamp from bilt, not liking to be raked down so roughly, has ventured to try his own hand at writing, and and unscrupulous followers of Douglas, in Memphis, countenanced by a few "big" men in lengthy card in the New York Herald of the 6th famy, ran down one morning upon the railroad,

This bill was not acted upon in the House of Representatives.

On the 11th of June preceding, an act passed the House of Representatives which has been construed as prohibiting the Postoffice Department from paying a greater compensation for the ocean mail service between New York and California than the amount of postage.

The gross amount of the California postages by steamers last year was about $300,000, when all letters, except those specially directed otherwise, were sent by this conveyance.

Of these receipts ninety per cent. was from letters, which constituted but two per cent. in weight of the mails, the remaining ten per cent. of receipts being from newspapers, which, with free matter, constituted ninety-eight per cent. in weight of the mails.

Congress, then, instead of giving us the California postage receipts for the California mail service, would virtually give us but ten per cent. of the postage receipts for performing ninety-eight per cent. of the postal service.

Furthermore, the overland mail contractors receive $800,000 by one route, and $400,000 by the other—in all $1,000,000. They carry only letters. If they should carry all the letters, they would perform but two per cent. of the service.

He entered the office of this paper, and commenced a violent and rufflanly assault with a loaded cane upon Mr. Bowman. Mr. Bowman was sitting at his desk at the time, writing, when Schnabel entered, and, before his purpose was suspected, aimed at the former's head a desperate blow, which struck a little diagonally downwards from the eyebow to the nose, inflicting a severe double gash from which the blood rapidly gushed forth, the force of the blow breaking the stout thick cane in two. The dastardly rufflan was about to repeat the attack, when an attache of the office, who was sitting at another desk, sprang forward and struck the cowardly assassin a blow with his fist, which knocked him down. Two or three accomplices of Schnabel immediately rushed to his assistance, when other employees of the office interfered, and the rufflans were ejected from the building. A warrant was immediately obtained for Schnabel, and his arrest was soon effected. On an examination before Justice Clark, Schnabel was bound over to await the action of the grand jury. It should be stated that before coming to this office an attempt was made to decoy Mr. Bow man to the Kirkwood House. Constitution says:

PAINFUL TRAGEDY IN NEW ORLEANS—A YOUNG MAN FATALLY STABBED IN PRESENCE OF HIS BRIDE.—George Schwarger, a peaceful and industrious young man, belonging to the Creole Engine Company, was sitting with his young wife, to whom he had been recently wedded, on the steps of a house in New Orleans, the other evening, when a young man, John Rencke, passed by, and looking up at Mrs. Schwarger remarked, in a loud and insulting manner: "There is one of my wives." The indignant husband leaped to his feet, and retorting with the exclamation, "You're a d—d liar!" slapped Rencke across the face with the back of his hand.—Rencke instantly drew a knife and thrust it into Schwarger's side, up to the hilt, and then made his escape. Schwarger staggered back, and fell into the arms of his terrified wife. He was carried home, and died in a short time. Rencke was soon after arrested and placed in prison.

[For the Louisville Courier. Democratic Meeting in Gallatin. The Democracy of Gallatin county, pursuant o notice, convened at the courthouse, on Monay, July 9, (Quarterly Court day,) and was day, July 9, (Quarterly Court day,) and was organized by unanimously calling Judge Graves to the Chair, who explained the object of the meeting to be the appointment of delegates for this country, to meet in State Convention, at Frankfort, on the 18th of July, and to nominate candidates for country offices, and also that it was a suitable time to give an expression of public feeling on the leading issues now pending in the Presidential canvass. Thereupon the Chair appointed A. B. Chambers, Jos. L. Lillard, William Turley, Fountain Perry, G. W. Sanders, Dr. Baldwin, and H. J. The committee retired, and after some absence, reported the following resolutions: regular nominee of the Democratic party. We deny it, and shall maintain our denial until the

Yet he repudiates Douglas, and is in favor of the ticket which Douglasites and Black Republicans delight to call the Seceders. The Lieutenant Governor, a distinguished Demo-crat, who last winter was the recipient, in the columns of the Democrat newspaper, of praise almost fulsome and extravagant, repudiate Douglas and supports Breckinginge. Round after round of entimessation applause from the gladdened hearts of the Democracy went forth, that fairly made the old courthouse tremble. At a meeting of the members of the late "Masonic Board of Finance," held at Masonic Temple on the evening of July 9th, Bro. J. V. Cowling was appointed Chairman, and Bro. J. A. Beattie Secretary. The object of the meeting having been explained by the Chairman to be to present a testimonial to Bro. Isaac Cromie, late Trustee, and the brother being present, the Chairman addressed him as follows:

The members of the late "Masonic Board of Finance," at their last meeting on the 5th of April, determined to make you some testimonial, valuable not for its intrinsic worth, but as a mark of esteem. Unavoidable circumstances have delayed the fulfillment of this resolve until now. As the Chairman of the late Board, it benow. As the Chairman of the late Board, it becomes my duty to present this testimonial. No duty could give me more pleasure than thus acting as the organ of the Board.

Resolved, That we approve of the call of a State Convention, to be held at Frankfort on the 18th day of July, to nominate a candidate for the Clerkship of the Appellate Court, and to make the necessary reformatory changes in the Electoral candidates herefore selected—as we are advised that recent events in the party render such steps necessary and proper.

The Chair now stated that it would be in order, and that the resolutions were open for discussion. Our able representative, A. B. Chambers, was called out, who responded, and in a half hour's speech presented, in a logical manner, the leading points of difference on the Territorial question now at issue between the Constitutional Democracy and our sectional opponents. Next followed Judge Graves and H. J. Abbett, who, in the true spirit, impressed it upon the audience that it was the imperative duty of every man who would protect his own fireside, that he had but one duty to perform in the present contest—to support Brekinness and Lank. A short time since a woman who gave her name as Mrs. Leroy arrived in this city in search of her husbond, one William H. Leroy, whom she represented as having run away from her at Lafayette, Indiana, taking with him a large amount of money belonging to her. She had been traveling on the charity of the Masonic fraternity, and received all the aid from officers that could be rendered in helping her to find her husband, who have ran away from her and

A day or two afterwards, she arrived at that place, in company with a Prussian named Charles Finner, with whom she lived as his wife until last Friday morning, when he was found dead in his bed, murdered by her with morphene, or some other drug.

A forged conveyance of all his property was exhibited by her, and also a fraudulent marriage certificate, signed by a Baptist minister in De-troit, who never had an existence. She was imder. Papers which were found under the carpet in her room furnish ground for the suspicion that her lost husband was disposed of in the

As was remarked by an officer who was cognizant of the case, "She made a miserable job of it," and was fastened for a certainty at the first suspicion. DISASTROUS FIRE .- At 1 o'clock P. M., yes

Disastrous Fire.—At 1 o'clock P. M., yesterday, a fire broke out at the corner of St. Andrew and New Levee streets, and spread out with fearful rapidity. In something like an hour and a half the whole square, comprised between New Levee, Roussean, St. Andrew and Adele streets, was burning furiously.

The sight was appalling. The combined heat of the fire and the sun made it next to impossible to keep the men in sufficient proximity to check the progress of the flames. The scarcity of water made the labors of the firemen still more painful and infructuous, and house after house was reduced to ashes, in spite of the strenuous efforts made to save them. The remembrance of the dreadful calamities suffered by the Fourth District from conflagrations seemed to strike the inhabitants with terror, and from every quarter people might be seen carrying out their furniture and wares to what they thought a safe distance, there to remain piled up until the danger was passed. Several men, while thus employed, fell exhausted and gasping for breath, so intense was the heat. It is feared that the consequences may prove fatal to some of them.

The Pelican Press, which stands opposite the burning square, was in great danger, and could only be saved by the admirably managed efforts of the fire department. At about half past five o'clock, the fire was finally put out, after devouring twenty-one buildings. Among the number were some substantial stores and residences, but the greater part consisted of cheap frame buildings. We would set down the loss at from forty to fifty thousand dollars, the two-thirds of which are probably covered by insurance, but we find it impossible to give correct figures.—[New Orleans Picayune, Sunday.

DEATH OF A NOTED GLUTTON.—On Wednesday morning last, says the Baltimore American of July 6, a colored man named Thomas Thomas, well known in the eastern section of the city as Eating Tom, died at his house on Fip-pennybit alley, near Eden, north of Baltimore street. He had partaken the previous evening of a large quantity of cueumbers, and on rising early on Wednesday morning drank immoderately of ice-water. In consequence he was seized with vioquantity of cueumbers, and on rising carry of vewednesday morning drank immoderately of icewater. In consequence he was seized with violent pains from colic, and notwithstanding the efforts of Dr. Healey, expired in two hours. He was in the eighty-eighth year of his age, having been born in 1772, four years before the Declaration of Independence. In his early life he was engaged as a stevedore, continuing that oecupation until his advanced age compelled him to quit it. He has been known to cat a moderate sized ham, with vegetables, &c., in proportion, at one meal. Six large loaves of bread, with more than a quart of coffee or tea, would scarcely suffice for his breakfast or supper. A good sized goose or turkey would disappear from sight in a short space of time. His daughter would prepare a plum pudding at stated periods, and cook it in a bushel bag. This would serve him and two others as dessert. A number of instances wherein his voracious appetite has been tested have occurred. At other times he would be content with a more moderate share of edibles.

Sterling R. From every portion of the State we hear of similar accessions to the National Democratic fold. It is beginning to be realized that Mr. Bell is not a party to this contest, and that in a day of such moment to the country no man will be justified in yielding to the weight of past political prejudices against the demands of an awakened patriotism.

At a time when the affairs of the Temple needed aid to carry out the designs of its founders, and assistance was required to forward the work then suspended, and when the Fraternity had exhausted the last cent of its resources, you, sacrificing every feeling of self to the noble purpose of doing good, assumed the direction of affairs—advancing funds out of your own private fortune—and, with consummate skill. tion of anairs—advancing tunes out of your own private fortune—and, with consummate skill, brought us safely through what appeared to be insurmountable difficulties and to a completion of this beautiful Temple, the pride of the Fra-ternity, an ornament to the city, and which, with slight exertion on our part, can be secured to THE LONDON TIMES ON SUMNER'S SPEECH.—

The man who can in personal irritability so forget the interests of a great cause is its worst enemy. Slavery existed on the American continent long before the Assembly, of which Mr. Summer is a member. On it depends, or so supposed to depend, the prosperity of half the Union; the looms of Lancashire and Normandy, as well as those of Mr. Summer's own State, are supplied by slave-grown cotton, and hundreds of millions of Northern dollars are vested in shave-worked plantations. Slavery, with its roots thus deep in the soil is not to be rooted up by any peevish effort of rhetoric; and we may predict that the man who first gains a victory for the cause of Abolition will be of very different temper to the Senator from Massachusetts.—[London Times. dge them.

Brother Cromie, in accepting the testimonial, replied in the following appropriate remarks:

Mr. Chairman and Brethren: I receive with great pleasure the very elegant testimonial you now present to me. You have alluded to the many difficulties which surrounded yourselves as the representatives of the Masonic bodies connected with your late Board and myself as Trustee for the three past years in the somewhat complicated affairs of the Masonic Temple. You compliment me too highly on my individual exertions in the business. I have but done what I considered my duty in the premises, and have had in that your assistance, collectively and individually, on many troublesome and intricate questions as they arose. I return you one and all my best thanks for this splendid present and the high terms of approbation you express of my administration of the trust during its continuance, and shall through life often look back to the many pleasant and happy hours we have spent together.

The case will be heard on the 11th inst. Of Robert Button, the wounded man, we see nothing, of late, in the papres. Tae State Convention. The Democracy of the State of Kentucky have been summoned to meet in State Convention on

And rarely have the lion-hearted and honest minded Democrats of this State been called together under circumstances of greater interest or required to act upon matters of greater im-portance. A candidate for the most lucrative office in the Commonwealth is to be selected; and coming, as the election will, right on the heels of a Presidential contest, it is doubly important that the right man be put in the right place—that a candidate be chosen whose name is amiliar, whose qualifications are known, whose reputation is unsullied, whose loyalty to the true faith is above suspicion, and whose election by the people will show the world that the mass whose votes gave Kentucky to Buchanan, and filled all the State offices with Democrats, can neither be led astray by the skillful sophistry of special pleaders, nor deceived by the unmeaning promises of professional demagogues, nor sway ed from the path of strict duty by delusive hopes of a success, nor to gratify the ambitious

But as important as it is, that a good nomination be made for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, recent events threatening the final overt of the party make it the bounden duty of the Democrats of the State now to come up to this Convention, to consult together, to strengthen each other's hands, and to agree upon concerted and determined measures to secure the trlumph of our principles and the success of our Bad, bold, designing, and desperate men are plotting the overthrow of the Democratic party. They have refused to recognize or act with the State organization of our party. They are opposing the regular nominees of a regular Convention for Judge of the Court of Appeals. They have clearly indicated their intention to defeat the choice of the next State Convention to defeat him, if in their power, not because he may be incompetent or unworthy, but simply for the reason that he will be the candidate of the Democratic party. They have called a State Convention of their own, not any regular authority, to meet together simply on the invitation of these DougLas bolters,

Look to it now, Democrats of Kentucky!

Information for the People ? When newspapers take no pains to obtain correct information, and their statements come to be regarded as the reckless assertions of careless or desperate men, of course no reliance is or should be placed in them or what they say. Las wing of the opposition seem to indicate a ness corresponding with their helpless fortunes, inaugurated at Baltimore and are playing out now. An intelligent people will not overlook the schemes of the Squatters; and a patriotic public will repudiate their tricks and frauds, and rebuke their abuse of good men whom they can-

Mr. Stevens, of Washington Territory, an able and active man, a loyal Democrat and a sincere friend of the rights of all the States, is the Chairman of the Democratic Executive Na-tional Committee at Washington. He is inspiring his associates with the zeal and determination that animates his own breast. Under his auspices, the canvass is being conducted with spirit and effect. These facts constitute his ffense; and the clansmen of Douglas, as in duty bound, set to work to disparage his merits, and to injure his reputation and influence. The Douglas organ here assails him as the Governor of Washington Territory, who is neglecting his official duties, and receiving the pay of the people, while remaining at the Federal Capital, to give his powerful aid to the defeat of LIN-

We see that Stephens, of Oregon, is Chairman We see that Stephens, of Oregon, is Chairman of the Bogus Democratic Committee of the Bogus Democratic Party, and all communications are to be addressed to him at Washington. He is Governor of Washington Territory, and we should like to know if he has nothing to do there? Ve should like to know if the Treasury of the United States is to support this committee; if officials are to neglect their duties at home, to go to Washington to serve the Administration in its purpose to destroy Douglas, and then draw their salaries for duties they never performed?

Now, what will our readers think of all this, when they are informed that Mr. STEVENS is not Governor of Washington Territory, or of any other Territory at all? RICHARD D. GHOLSON, of Kentucky, succeeded Gov. STEVENS in Washington Territory. Gov. Stevens is a delegate in Congress; and as he is paid to remain there and attend to the duties he owes his constituents, we do not know a better place for the Administration-a Democratic Administra ry to conduct the BBECKINRIDGE canvass, that will pay salaries for services never performed, are characteristic of the Douglas press, and will of the real Democracy. And while on the subject we may as well cor ect another unfounded statement in the same paper, in regard to Mr. BRECKINRIDGE. It is: Mr. BRECKINBIDGE did nothing of the kind and, we believe, in all his bitter contests before, nothing of the kind has been charged against water. And the intimation that Mr. BRECKIN-

RIDGE ever sympathized with Know Nothingism is equally gratuitous. Neither Mr. Breckin-ridge nor his cause can be injured by such attacks upon him or his friends. The people will attribute all such attempts to injure the National Democracy to the proper cause; and good, and not evil, will be the result.

The Duty of the Democratic People. The people of the United States have enter ato a canvass for the selection of a President of the United States. The duty they are called upon to discharge is the most serious possible to be devolved upon a free people. Upon the wisdom of their choice, and the moderation of their conduct, depends their own peace, and the peace of

The National Democracy, firm in their adheree to the principles of the Constitution, faithful to the Union, honest and patriotic, are rallying around the colors of BRECKINRIDGE and ANE, and with one strong, determined effort will place these, their worthy representatives, in e exalted position for which they have been designated, and so thwart the deep-seated, trea sonable, and daring designs of the enemies of the ountry, who are now plotting its overthrow for heir own base ends.

Every man has a work to do. No one ean now stand idle all the day, without indirecty aiding our enemies. From the highest to the owest, from the richest to the poorest, all classes and all people who are interested in the preervation of our republican institutions, have omething to urge them forward in the good

All cannot make speeches. All have not "gold or silver" to aid in getting up barbacues and sending orators throughout the State. But all an do something, not less necesary to be done, not less decisive in determining the result of the struggle-all can sid in circulating broadcast throughout the country good, sound, reliable, and influential Democratic newspapers; and very body. It appeals to the reason, and the judgment, and the patriotism, and the conscience of the people. It is silent, steady, unceasing, and overpowering. Demo-crats! your ascendancy is endangered, and bolters and disorganizers are uniting with your enemies to defeat you-will you leave any stone unturned, any honest effort unattempted, to secure success and to maintain your position? Do you intend to elect John C. Breckingidge to the Presidency? Do you intend to defeat ABRAHAM LIN-COLN? Do you intend to teach STEPHEN AR-NOLD DOUGLAS that the fate of bolters and disc organizers is inevitable and overwhelming? If go to work in earnest, each one of you in your neighborhood; and the first and most imortant thing to do, is to supply every body with a Democratic newspaper.

The Courier has enlisted for the war. It is in arnest. It is determined. It will make a good fight for Democratic principles, for the Demo-cratic candidates, for the Union and the rights f the States, and against Lincoln, and Douglas, and Bell, and those who act with them. Its course has been appreciated; and from the North and the South, from the East and the West, from the free States and the slave States, we have received indications of approbation, and tokens of substantial favor .-subscribers' names have been received in numbers unprecedented before; and the "cry is, still they come." We will continue to do our whole duty; and with our MAMMOTH WEEKLY, filled with facts for the people, in every house and in the hands of every voter, the result cannot be loubtful. Roll on the ball, then! Send in names by hundreds and thousands. Send them from Indiana and Tennessee, from Ohio and Missouri, from Illinois and Kentucky-send them from all parts of the Union, for true Democrats everywhere appland its course and approve its principles .-True Democracy is the same all over the Union. And the Courier represents a national sentiment which prevails wherever Democrats are

Keep the ball rolling! to get up an anti-Democratic organization in the | Blanton Duncau for Everett or Douglas. Our readers in times past have heard something of Mr. BLANTON DUNCAN. As Grand Secing earried on for the Presidency. LINCOLN is retary of the Grand Know Nothing Council of the standard-bearer of the uitra wing of the Black Republicans. Between Lincoln and our that concern; in doing which he established a repown BRECKINRIDGE the conflict is doubtful; and utation as a prolific writer of very great capacity.

ence at Baltimore to secure the nomination of Then, at such a time, with the existence of the Douglas, is out in a letter defining his position! BELL, and work for DougLas. It don't matter clung to the Democratic faith through years of much, however, how he votes or what course he pursues; and we only refer to the subject at all defeat and disaster, who never faltered and never to show how kindly the late Grand Secretary and Messrs, Forsythe, Henderson, & Co., take to each other. Mr. Forsythe says the Douglasites can't compromise with the Breckinridge men, but they can unite with the Bell men. The Louisville Democrat applauds Mr. Forsythe. Mr. Henderson, the big gun of Missouri Donglasism, wants Douglas elected if possible, and if that can't be done, is for BELL and EVERETT.

> Squatter meetings, said at Philadelphia:
> I tell you that the State of Kentucky will go one or two ways, and I do not know which.
> [Laughter.] it is not going one of three ways—there is no three ways about it. Kentucky is an old-fashiomed, old-line, homest, independent Whig State. That is what Kentucky is—Whig to the backbone, and if she has given Democratic votes, it has been because the sectional parties which have been created in this country have left her no other choice. The State of Kentucky has gone Democratic, not because she either loved Democratic leaders or Democratic power, or has abjured or taken back in any degree the principles of the Whig party. But I say that Kentucky is going to do one of two things—either she is going for Bell and Everett or for Stephen A. Douglas.
> And Mr. Blanton Duncan, grateful it may be Squatter meetings, said at Philadelphia:

And Mr. BLANTON DUNCAN, grateful it may b for the aid thus given to his party, or possibly anxious to encourage this faction in their war on Democracy, takes up the cue, and joins the Douglasites in abusing such "disunionists" as John Breckinginge and Gen. Lane, and in enouncing the Democratic administration of JAMES BUCHANAN as "a contemptible and tyrannical dynasty." Par nobile fratrum. How many of the life-long Democrats of Kentucky will go with Forsythe, and Henderson, and Mar-SHALL, and BLANTON DUNCAN against the administration and for BELL and DOUGLAS? Having read the extracts heretofore published from the speeches of Forsythe & Co., the following paragraph from Mr. Duncan's letter will be appreciated by the Democracy of this State: be appreciated by the Democracy of this State:

I shall heartly rejoice in the election of either Mr.

Bell or Mr. Douglas. But in no contingency can I be induced to countenance or aid the Secassion movement inaugurated by Mr. Yancey and others to which Mr. Breckinkinge lends the use of his name for no possible object, that I can conceive of, but the election of Lincoln and the contemplated disruption of our Confederacy.

There are sentiments perveding the ranks of the Bell and Evertimen in unison with those felt by the friends of Douglas: BITTER HOSTILITY TO THE CORRUPT ADMINISTRATION and a deep-rooted love for the Union. With these common ties to unite us, I am satisfied to see in the North an evident inclination to coalesee against Lincoln.

This must insure his deleat, and the election in the Honse of Mr. Bell, or that of Ex-Governor JOHNSON, by the Senate, in the event that Mr.
DOUGLAS falls of an election by the people, which I am not at all sure will be the case, judging from the present popular manifestations in his favor.

His gallant rebellion against the present contemptible and tyrannical dynasty, entitles him to the sympathies of the whole American people, and more especially of our party, who believed that his course was right upon the Kanasa imbroglio. His manly bearing, when seemingly crushed down, sufficiently guarantees that he will truly be President, if chosen by the people.
It should be the pobley of our party to strengthen him at the North, for in his success there depends alone the chance of Mr. Bell's election.

ads alone the chance of Mr. Bell's electi that there was not a Democratic journal in New York that did not support DougLas and JOHNSON. The following papers in that State, we are reliably informed, are for BRECKINGIDGE and Lane : Journal of Commerce, N. Y.; Buffa lo Post, Binghamton Democrat, Putnam County Courier, Delaware Republican, Hudson Gazette Dunkirk Free Press and Argus, Genessee Dem-crat, Schenectady News, Albany Evening Stan-

After an experience of one year in putting p Vulcanite Base, Messrs. Fittz & Fulton are mor fully prepared to indorse its claims of superiority to everything else as a base for Artificial Teeth. When they introduced it in Louisville they advertised it as follows: That it was one half lighter than metal, mor cleanly, and that they were more certain of getting a perfect fit of the mouth. They now go further, and say that it is much stronger than sets on metal, and cas liable to be injured by accident, while the low price brings it within the reach of all. Believing that their efforts to give the best work at small profits will be appreciated, they have determined on a reduction their prices. To substantiate the above the oledge themselves to replace with gold, without ex ra charge, any set on Vulcanite that fails in any on particular as set forth above. They still put up th gold work for those who desire it.

A WORD TO THE WISE .- The people are aware that D. O'Hare, No. 427 Main street, is the oldest, largest, and most experienced manufacturer of trunks and similar articles in the city. They should avail themselves of the rare opportunities afforded by Mr. O'Hare. To the country and city merchants he offers eculiar advantages in his wholesale department, while in the retail line he cannot be equalled. Whoever wants to travel, whether with a small car-pet bag or a mammoth trunk, need go no further than the great Western factory of Mr. O'Hare. His manufactory is a credit to Louisville, and should meet with extensive patronage. As a matter of home pride, and subserve economy, purchasers will consult their best interest in purchasing of Mr. D. O'Hare. Remember, that the United States Prize Medal was awarded to D. O'Hare for the best trunks made.

A Question of Etiquette. It is stated in English papers that a difficulty has been raised at St. Petersburg about the reception of Lady Crampton, wife of the British Ambassador at that Court. It is said that the objection is, that before her marriage, she was aply Miss Victoria Balfe, an opera singer. The article says:

The Russians are aghast at the idea of a singer having precedence of the whole foreign corps diplomatique, together with the entree to the paiace. They cannot see how the daughter of a musical composer, the leader of the orchestra of the Opera-house (herself a public singer moreover.) can worthily represent the majesty of of England. They say, "It is true a noble earl married an actress, Miss Farren; the late Earl of Essex, Miss Stephens, the singer; the late Duke of St. Albans, an actress, Miss Mollon; the late Earl of Harrington an actress, Miss Brunton, &c., but none of these noblemen were ambassadors or other representatives of British Sovereigns." article says:

ACC., but none of these noblemen were ambassadors or other representatives of British Sovereigns."

The case is not fairly put up by the Russian sticklers of etiquette. The Countess of Derby was Eliza Farren, actress; the Countess of Essex was Kitty Stevens, singer. Each and every one of these ladies and every one

Mr. Office.—Counting House De accompanied her husband to Russia, whither he was sent as ambassador from his own country, the Emperor Nicholas and his wife cordially received her into their most intimate society. As persons who stickle for ctiquette are greatly influenced by precedent, here is a case in point which may be found useful. No doubt Sir John will urge it, if necessary.

A California Trial.

A fellow named Donks was lately tried at Yuba city, for entering a miner's tent and seizing a bag of gold dust, valued at eighty-four dollars. The testimony showed that he had once been employed there, and knew exactly where the owner kept his dust; that on the night of October 19th he cut a slit in the tent, reached in, took the bag, and then ran off.

Jim Buller, the principal witness, testified that he saw the hole cut, saw the man reach in, and heard him run away.

heard him run away.
"I put for him at once," continued the witness,
"but when I cotched him I didn't find Bill's bag; but it was found afterwards where he had throwed it."
Counsel for the Prisoner.—How far did he get in when he took the dust? counsel for the Prisoner.—How lar did he get in when he took the dust?

Buller.—Well, he was stoopin' over—about half in, I should say.

Counsel.—May it please your honor, the indictment isn't sastained, and I shall demand an acquittal on the direction of the court. The prisoner is on trial for entering a dwelling in the night time with intent to steal. The testimony is clear that he made an opening, through which he protruded himself about half way, and, stretching out his arms, committed the theft. But the indictment charges that he actually entered the tent or dwelling. Now, your honor, can a man enter the house, when only one-half of his body is in, and the other half out?

Judge.—I shall leave the whole matter to the jury. They must judge of the law and the fact as proved.

The jury brought in a verdict of "guilty" as to me half of the body from the waist up, and "not utilty" as to the other half.

The judge sentenced the guilty half to two ears' imprisonment, leaving it to the prisoner's ption to have the "not guilty" half cut off, or also its discount of the prisoner's prior to have the "not guilty" half cut off, or also its discount of the prisoner's prior thy of Solomon.

A Southern planter named P—, pretty well to do in the world now, was, some twenty years ago, a poor boy on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. One of the most marked traits of his character was an inordinate love of money. In the course of time P— was of age, and thought it was about time to get married. He went to a neighboring village, and was introduced to the daughter of Judge B—.

"Fine gal," said the embers of speculator to his friends, who were gaining him an entrance

"How much might Judge B—— be worth?"
"About ten thousand dollars," was the reply.

had got quite muddy, with fully five feet two inches water in the canal by the mark at dusk. During the previous twenty-four hours the river had risen five inches at the head of the falls, which was fully one oot at Portland, with at least eight feet on the bar. The weather, though clear and warm, was much cool-er yesterday than the day before, with a good breeze, the thermometer not over 88 in the shade.
officers of the General Pike, which arrived from Memphis yesterday, report only three and a half feet water on the Cumberland dam, but the river was rising at Uniontown, and there was a swell in the Wabash at the mouth. At Scuffletown, and other points above Evansville, there were four and a half feet water, and the river slowly swelling. The Peytona arrived from Evansville yesterday morning, and was laid up at Lower Albany. She found five feet at Scuffletown, and we think the rise will make fully five feet water to the mouth, though

THE CAPTAIN'S UNION ASSOCIATION CONVEN-TION .- Yesterday was the second day of the Convention, with an increase of several delegates, including Capt. Neare, of Pittsburg, the only representative from that quarter, and the assembly numbered 91 delegates, representing fourteen different steamboat arades and interests. ne freight committees had not come in, nothing deanite was acted on in the convention during the day. arious speeches were made by numbers of the con-ention, and several important measures introduced and presented to their consideration. A letter was and presented to their consideration. A retter was also read from the Engineer's Association. Among the grievances complained of, especially by Southern delegates, were the employment of passen-ger agents, or runners, and the advertising newspaper agents and their tariffs.

The convention adjourned in the evening without any report from the outstanding committees, and are to meet again at the usual hour. Previous to adjourn-Resolved, That this Convention tender to Mr. A. J.
